On June 8, 2007, this Court entered an order restraining all Bank of America accounts in the names of Michael Brent Byrd and/or B&B Masonry. The Court's order was made pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 982(b)(1), which incorporates 21 U.S.C. § 853(e)(1)(A), for the purpose of preserving the availability of property subject to forfeiture.

Based upon the motion from the United States, it now appears to the Court that the parties have made an agreement for the purpose of preserving forfeitable property, which makes the Court's restraining order no longer necessary.

Accordingly, the Court orders that effective immediately, and until further order of the Court, the Bank of America shall release all funds and accounts (including all safety deposit boxes), including but not limited to Bank of America account number xxxxxxxx3688 from the prior restraining order.

Dated this 22nd day of June 2007.
